Dear Park Hill families

Diwali Celebrations – Early Years

We are inviting you to join us on Thursday, 7th November to celebrate Diwali. The event will take place from 2:00 pm to 3:00 pm. Only 2 adults are allowed, per child, due to space in the hall.

During the celebration, we will explore what takes place during Diwali through songs, traditional food, crafts and dancing. A Mehndi artist will also be attending. If you would like to participate in the Mehndi activity, we ask that you kindly donate £1 at the session, towards our school events.

Please arrive at the school reception at 1:50 pm ready to start the celebrations. We have an exciting afternoon planned and look forward to celebrating Diwali together as a school community.

Some key highlights of the Diwali celebration include:

- Traditional Diwali songs performed by our students
- Hands-on craft activities to make Diwali decorations and rangoli patterns
- Sampling of authentic Indian sweets and savory dishes
- Mehndi (henna) painting station for those who would like to participate (£1 donation)

Please complete the reply slip below and return to school by Monday 4th November.

Yours sincerely,

Miss L. Wilkinson
Reception Teacher
