

Supporting young people and families to get the best from life.

Sandwell Family Life

.....plus much more!

*Over 700
activities/
services listed
for children,
young people
and families!*

Sandwell Family Life is an online directory of services supporting children, young people and families to get the best from life and help children and young people achieve positive outcomes. Sandwell Family Life lists over 700 different services which can help you find that little bit of extra help you may have been looking for - all services are local and open to all children and families. Whether you want information about activities, sports and leisure, advice about emotional health and wellbeing, money matters or a new training or work opportunity, Sandwell Family Life will have something near to you.

You can find the information
at www.sandwellfamilylife.info – give it a try!