Early Years Foundation Stage

Understanding the World educational programme (taken from the EYFS Statutory Framework):

Understanding the world involves guiding children to make sense of their physical world and their community. The frequency and range of children's personal experiences increases their knowledge and sense of the world around them – from visiting parks, libraries and museums to meeting important members of society such as police officers, nurses and firefighters. In addition, listening to a broad selection of stories, non-fiction, rhymes and poems will foster their understanding of our culturally, socially, technologically and ecologically diverse world. As well as building important knowledge, this extends their familiarity with words that support understanding across domains. Enriching and widening children's vocabulary will support later reading comprehension.

Early Learning Goals that link to Religious Education are:

EYFS Understanding the World – ELG People, Culture and Communities

- Know some similarities and differences between different religious and cultural communities in this country, drawing on their experiences and what has been read in class;
- Explain some similarities and differences between life in this country and life in other countries, drawing on knowledge from stories, non-fiction texts and – when appropriate – maps.

In the EYFS, children:

- Learn about and celebrate a range of festivals and celebrations from around the world, for example Christmas, Easter, Chinese New Year, Eid, Diwali – these may change or be added to depending on the children in EYFS, as we try to celebrate the festivals that the children in the class will celebrate at home.
- Look at what makes us the same and different to others.
- Learn about different feelings and talk about how they are feeling, how others are feeling and what we can do to make others feel good.
- Develop compassion for others through a caring and supportive environment.

Enquiry Question	What do Christians believe about God?	Is it possible to be kind to everyone all of the time?	Does joining the Khalsa make someone a better Sikh?	What is the best way for a Jew to lead a good life?	How can Brahman be everywhere and in everything?	What is the best way for a Jew to show commitment to God?
Key Knowledge	Creation story from the book of Genesis in the Bible in the Old Testament. God is the Creator of the world according to the Bible and this is also in the Creed (the beliefs of the Christian Church) used by many Christian congregations In the Genesis account (Chapter 1) within the Bible, God gives the first humans the responsibility to look after the world He has created: "Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish in the sea and the birds in the sky and over every living creature that moves on the ground." The New Testament tells Christians to love their neighbour as themselves.	This enquiry investigates how Christians might follow Jesus' example of being kind to people. The learning is based on Jesus summing up the 10 commandments from the Old Testament into two commandments. "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind and with all your strength.' The second is this: 'Love your neighbour as yourself.' There is no commandment greater than these." Mark 12:30-31 Jesus then gave examples of parables and acted in a way to help people around him understand this.	In this enquiry, the children look at one of the key stories in Sikh history. They reflect on the messages and begin to understand why some Sikhs would want to join the Khalsa. Story of Guru Gobind Singh and the Panj Pyare. The Khalsa baptism ceremony is called the Amrit ceremony, this involves the drinking of Amrit (sugar water stirred with a dagger) in the presence of 5 Khalsa Sikhs as well as the Guru Granth Sahib. The novice is instructed in the following: You shall never remove any hair from any part of thy body You shall not use tobacco, alcohol or any other intoxicants You shall not eat the meat of an animal slaughtered the Muslim way You shall not commit adultery. The novice is required to wear the physical symbols of a Khalsa at all times (known as the 5K's) as well as follow the Khalsa Code of Conduct.	Abraham is the founder of Judaism and that he made a covenant or an agreement with God. God promised that Abraham would be great nation. His wife eventually gave birth to a son when she was 90 years old, named Isaac. God asked Abraham to take Isaac away and sacrifice him. Just as he was about to kill Isaac, God stopped him and provided a ram as a sacrifice instead. Jewish marriage: This is seen as a public commitment making ceremony and therefore a sincere desire to lead a good life. The ceremony is described in detail in the plan. Mitzvot means doing good and helping others. This is an important part of Jewish life. There are 613 rules or suggested ways this can be done. Tikkun Olam (repair of the world) comes from an early Jewish code called the Mishnah. To perform an act of kindness that will improve or help to repair the world. Tu B'Shevat: this is an annual tree-planting ceremony that usually takes place in January or February. It is considered the Jewish New Year for trees. This is part of taking care of the environment. Mitzvah Day: Jews feel they can all make a positive difference to the world in which they live by giving their most valuable possession — their time. Mitzvah Day falls on the 3rd Sunday in November (which coincides with interfaith week). It began as a Jewish project but is now a multifaith and multicultural project.	Sanatanis believe in a universal soul or God called Brahman and that there is a part of Brahman in everyone and this is called the Atman The atman is translated into English as the eternal self, spirit, essence, soul, or breath. It is the true self which moves on after death or becomes part of Brahman (the force underlying all things). The final stage of moksha (liberation) is the understanding that your atman is, in fact, Brahman. Trimurti, a term meaning "having three forms," refers to the three main aspects of Brahman	Tenakh: Written in Hebrew and the first five books are the Torah: Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers and Deuteronomy. This is called in Hebrew the Tenakh: Torah (Law), Nevi'im (Prophets), Ketuvim (Writings). (Sometimes the whole of the Jewish Bible is referred to as the Torah.) Torah (first five books): Jewish belief is that the Torah was given to Moses by God. The teachings of the Torah influence all Jewish life as Jews are required to follow the 613 mitzvot (commandments or laws) which were expanded from the original 10 commandments given to Moses. Prayer: There are three daily periods of prayer; early morning, afternoon, and evening Synagogue: The main place for community worship is the synagogue. A synagogue is the center of the community as well as a place to meet, worship and pray Bar/Bat Mitzvah: The Jewish initiation ceremony is called Bar or Bat Mitzvah. Shabbat (Sabbath): Shabbat is celebrated both in the home and the synagogue and the main requirement is that no work should be attempted from sunset on Friday until sunset on Saturday.

Enquiry Questions	What gifts might Christians in my town have given Jesus if he had been born here rather than in Bethlehem?	Why do Christians believe God gave Jesus to the world?	Has Christmas lost its true meaning?	What is the most significant part of the nativity story for Christians today?	Is the Christmas story true?	How significant was it that Mary was Jesus' mother?
Key Knowledge	The enquiry is focussed on the first Christmas and more specifically the gifts that Jesus received, their meaning and symbolism and how that compares with gifts today. Mary was a young Jewish woman whom God chose to be the mother of his son, Jesus, and he sent his angel, Gabriel, to ask this of her. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Mary agreed (this is called her "Fiat") and Jesus was born in Bethlehem. This is the Christian concept of incarnation: God becoming man or literally being "made flesh". The star in the sky symbolises Jesus' importance and how he could be a light for other nations. The gifts show that Jesus was a type of both king and God, and would die. 	This enquiry investigates the Christian belief in Jesus as a gift of love to humanity. Trinity: complete relationship between God (the Father), Jesus (his son) and the Holy Spirit. The three are "consubstantial", which means that they exist separately and together as one God became incarnate at Christmas and bought God's love for the world to earth in human form. This enquiry also reflects the concept of salvation: Christians believe that God gave the gift of his son to humanity in order to save them from sin and open up a pathway back to God through the death and resurrection of Jesus Agape: Agape is universal love, such as the love for strangers, nature, or God. It is also called charity	This enquiry investigates the meaning of Christmas to Christians and examines the elements we see both with the Christmas story in the Bible, and Christmas today. God chose a Jewish young woman called Mary, who was engaged to Joseph the carpenter, to be the mother of his earthly son. He sent his angel, Gabriel, to ask this of her. Mary agreed to allow this to happen and Jesus was born in Bethlehem. This is the Christian concept of "incarnation": God becoming man or literally being "made flesh". Jesus was born in a stable and was visited by a variety of people from very different social classes. There is a significance to the people and places which appear in the Christmas story Shepherds: first people to learn of the birth of Christ. Star: The star led the wise men from a great distance to Jesus. It also portrays to Christians that Jesus is the light of the world. Wise men and their gifts: The wise men travelled a great distance because the star signified to them that a king had been born. They chose gifts fit for royalty and which signified Jesus' life to come. Stable: Earthly royalty would be born in a palace, but Jesus was born in a stable because there was no room at the inn.	Jesus was born in Bethlehem and Christians believe he was God's son. Mary was his mother and Joseph was engaged to her at the time. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The elements of the Christingle have a symbolism <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The orange represents the world. The candle reminds Christians of Jesus whom they believe to be the light of the world. The red ribbon goes all round the 'world' and being the colour of blood, reminds Christians that Jesus died. The four cocktail sticks are the four seasons The sweets (or sometimes dried fruit) remind Christians of God's gifts to the world 	The Bible records the important events in the life of Jesus in the Gospels. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Gospels were probably not written as events happened. They would have been told and retold before recording, therefore specific dates and times may have become unknown (or irrelevant) The fixing of a festival date to commemorate an event does not necessarily have to happen on the actual date of the event (e.g. The Scouting/Guiding movement chose the birthday of the founders, not the actual date they first started the movement). The Gospels which retell the birth of Jesus agree on the main points and disagree on nothing. 	Christians celebrate the arrival of Jesus as God's Son. God chose a Jewish young woman called Mary, who was engaged to Joseph the carpenter, to be the mother of his earthly son and sent his angel, Gabriel, to ask this of her. This is called the annunciation. Mary agreed to allow this to happen and Jesus was born in Bethlehem. Mary was a virgin, so this was a miracle. This is the Christian concept of "incarnation": God becoming man or literally being "made flesh". A common misconception is that this event was done to Mary without her consent, or with very little choice. However, the Christian belief in free will precludes this and in response to the angel, Mary says "Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word." (Luke 1:38) Some Christians believe the virgin birth is symbolic of humanity and divinity joining. Jesus needed to be human and divine in order to bring salvation, so what better way to show this than by Jesus having a human mother and a divine father.

Enquiry Question	Who is God to Sikhs?	How important is the prophet Muhammad to Muslims?	Could Jesus heal people? Did He perform miracles or was there some other explanation?	What is the best way for a Sikh to lead a good life?	How far would a Sikh go for their religion?	Is anything ever eternal?
Key Knowledge	Sikhs believe in one God and this God is within people, animals and plants. Guru Nanak was the founder of Sikhism. He was the first of 10 very special teachers called the Gurus. He taught people that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · There is only one God · To God, all people are equal, and God wants us all to treat one another as equals · God created everyone and loves everyone · We must share what we have with others · God wants us to earn an honest living · It is important to lead a good life The Guru Granth Sahib is the Sikh holy text. It is always treated with the utmost respect, the same respect as a living Guru of the Sikhs: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Everyone bows down to it when they are at the Gurdwara · It has 1430 pages · It contains hymns from 36 saints: many from different backgrounds and religions · The hymns are written as poems and set to a classical North Indian form of music · It is covered in a special fabric and has a special throne 	This enquiry looks at the life of the prophet Muhammad and the part he played in the start of Islam. The Prophet Muhammad is a key person for Muslims. Born and raised in Makkah, Saudi Arabia, he was chosen by Allah (God) to be his messenger. The words Allah gave to Muhammad were later written down and became the Holy Qur'an. Muhammad is special to Muslims, but he is not as special as God – only Allah is God and only Allah should be worshipped. Muhammad is remembered as a good man who worked hard, was honest and listened to Allah.	The concept of Incarnation is that Jesus became man and lived among men and women. As part of his ministry, narrated in the New Testament of the Bible, Jesus performed many miracles. The miracles included in this enquiry are based on healing (rather than some others which create e.g. food and drink). Jesus uses saliva to heal the man born blind, and builds on the faith of the friends to heal a paralysed man.	Sikh core beliefs include the need to treat people as equals and share with others Actions such as wearing the 5 Ks, repeating God's name, reading the scriptures, singing praises, taking part in Langer, Sewa (selfless service) and wearing a turban could show that Sikhs wish to follow their teachings and live a good life. Sikhs also show respect to the Guru Granth Sahib: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · They bow down when they see Guru Granth Sahib, · they wrap Guru Granth Sahib with beautiful cloth, · they wave over the Guru Granth Sahib to show respect, · they listen to the teachings of Guru Granth Sahib, After a day of worship, they take the Guru to a special room which serves as a 'resting place'. Many Sikhs feel that the biggest commitment a Sikh can make to living a good life is by following the teachings of the Guru Granth Sahib. These include instructions to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · be kind, · speak nicely to others, be honest, · care for others, · stand up to bullying behaviour, · help those who need it, · love everyone'. 	Sikhs are proud to visibly show commitment to their faith – this can be done in many ways including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Joining the Khalsa through the Amrit Ceremony · Wearing the 5 K's · Worshipping in the Gurdwara · Reading and respecting the Guru Granth Sahib · Serving the community through the Langar meal and other areas of Sewa (service) 	Christians believe that God's love for humankind is eternal in that God will never stop loving humanity. Even if they do wrong, they can say sorry and God will forgive them because he loves them. Jesus taught about the concept of heaven twice. In John 14:1-6, he uses the Greek word 'topos', which is translated as "place." For example, he says, "I go to prepare a place for you." Christians believe it is Jesus' sacrifice of salvation that makes a forgiven sinner perfect in the eyes of God and then they can enter heaven where they can live eternally being loved by and loving God.

Enquiry Question	Why was Jesus welcomed like a king or celebrity by the crowds on Palm Sunday?	How important is it to Christians that Jesus came back to lie after His crucifixion?	What is "good" about Good Friday?	Is forgiveness always possible for Christians?	How significant is it for Christians to believe that God intended Jesus to die?	Is Christianity still a strong religion over 2000 years after Jesus was on earth?
Key Knowledge	The enquiry is looks at the events of Palm Sunday and their significance to Christians today. Christian concept of Salvation: the saving of mankind from permanent separation from God by the death and resurrection of Jesus <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Trinity. This is the 'complete relationship' between God (the Father), Jesus (his son) and the Holy Spirit Palm Sunday is the day where Jesus rode into Jerusalem. He fulfilled Old Testament prophecies which said that this would happen when the "king" came. 	This enquiry examines the events of Easter Sunday, Jesus' resurrection, and the impact this has on Christians today. Christians believe that Jesus was put to death on a cross and remember this event on Good Friday. They believe that after he died, he was put into a tomb with a stone rolled across the doorway (so something that could not easily be moved especially from the inside). On Easter Sunday, visitors to the tomb (one being Mary Magdalene who was a follower of Jesus) found it empty. Mary then saw Jesus in the gardens surrounding the tomb, demonstrating to her that he had risen from the dead. The disciples (Jesus' friends) wrote about these events and their significance in the later books of the New Testament	This enquiry considers the Christian concepts of Salvation and the Gospels, where we find the story of Holy Week (the events leading up to Jesus' death and resurrection starting with Palm Sunday and finishing on Easter Sunday). Salvation: the belief that Jesus' death and resurrection saved humans and opened the way back to God for eternity. All 4 of the Gospels (the accounts of Jesus' life on earth attributed to his closest friends) tell the story of Holy Week. The day before Good Friday is called "Maundy Thursday" and is the day he ate a "Last Supper" with his friends. The passing of the cup of wine and breaking of bread at this supper is commemorated in the Christian sacrament of communion. Good Friday is the day when Christians commemorate the death of Jesus on the cross. Christians believe his death on Good Friday was necessary to bring forth the resurrection on Easter Sunday.	Christians believe that Jesus is the son of God, who came to Earth in order to save humans from their sins. His death and resurrection opened up the way back to God and restored humanity's relationship with him. This is the Christian concept of salvation. Jesus forgave many people in his lifetime as an example to his followers. He was "without sin" as the incarnate Son of God so could not do something wrong. He is usually depicted in the Gospels as kind and loving. The actions in the Temple are a stark contrast to this. Jesus taught his disciples "the Lord's Prayer" which is also known as the "Our Father". It explicitly asks God to grant the speaker forgiveness as they forgive others who have hurt them.	Christians believe that Jesus is the son of God, who came to Earth in order to save humans from their sins. His death and resurrection opened up the way back to God and restored humanity's relationship with him. This is the Christian concept of salvation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> The Bible cites many examples where Jesus says he knows he will be going to his death. It says he warned his disciples that "He will be handed over to the Gentiles. They will mock him, insult him, spit on him, flog him and kill him" (Luke 18:32). Later he told the Roman governor, Pilate, "For this reason I was born, and for this I came into the world" (John 18:37). 	Christian concepts such as Lent (the 40 days leading up to Holy Week commemorating Jesus' time fasting in the desert), Shrove Tuesday (the start of Lent), Ash Wednesday (when ashes from burnt palms from the previous years' Palm Sunday are placed on believers' foreheads) are all aspect of Christian preparation for Easter. Advent is the preparation time for Christmas. Christian charities can demonstrate Jesus' teaching to love your neighbour (demonstrate Agape) There are countries where people are persecuted for being Christians and Christians have to suffer if they stand up for their beliefs.
Substantive Concepts (blue)	I can explain why Jesus might have been special or important to the people around him. I can retell some of the Easter story (Before and during Palm Sunday).	I can recall parts of the Easter story (to the crucifixion) and say what I think happens next. I can recall parts of the Easter story (after the crucifixion). I can recall parts of the Easter story (after the resurrection).	I can start to tell you why Jesus' death might be important to Christians because of what happened at the Last Supper I can start to tell you why Jesus' death might be important to Christians because	I can describe what a Christian might learn about forgiveness from a Bible story I can retell a Bible story where Jesus forgave somebody I can discuss how some Christians might feel about forgiveness	I can begin to consider whether the crucifixion was a consequence of the events of Holy Week I can begin to consider whether the crucifixion was a consequence of the events of Holy Week or whether Jesus knew and it was part of God's	I can discuss different types of festivals and celebrations and discuss what they demonstrate about Christianity I can explain some ways in which Christianity is influencing lives today regarding symbols and Christian organisations

Enquiry Question	Who is God to Muslims?	Does taking part in Baisakhi help Sikh children feel a sense of belonging?	What do some deities tell Sanatanis about God?	What is the best way for a Muslim to lead a good life?	What is the best way for a Muslim to show commitment to God?	How is the Qu'ran vital to Muslims today?
Key Knowledge	Muslims believe that Allah is perfect. He is the one who made human beings, the one who watches them during life and the one who decides what happens when life is over. Allah should be the most important thing in a Muslim's life – for this reason many Muslims do things every day to make sure they remember Allah like praying 5 times a day. The prayer times are often at difficult times, but this is to show that Muslims should build their day around Allah rather than fit him into their lives when it suits them best. Allah comes first.	Guru Gobind Singh (the 10th Guru) introduced many of the customs Sikhs practice today. He formed the Khalsa, which is a group of baptised Sikhs who have fully dedicated themselves to their faith, in 1699 at Baisakhi (or Vaisakhi). This is celebrated on the 13th or 14th April every year and is now the most important festival in the Sikh religion. The main symbol of Sikhi is known as the Khanda which is a combination of three symbols in one. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1) The Khanda. This is double-edged sword that represents the belief in one God. 2) The Chakkar. This a circle representing God. A circle is continuous (no beginning or end), reminding Sikhs to remain within the rule of God. 3) Two crossed kirpans or swords. This represents political power and spiritual authority. It can be found on the Nishan Sahib and on the canopy which covers the Guru Granth Sahib. The Nishan Sahib is a flag which is placed outside every Gurdwara. It is triangular, saffron coloured and includes the Khanda. Nishan means sign. Sahib means master. It was first introduced by the 6th Guru, Guru Har Gobind. There is always a flagpole in front of	Sanatanis believe that Brahman can appear in many different ways but is always the one supreme being. He is present in the Trimurti and all other deities. Shiva and Parvati are believed to be parents to Ganesha. Due to him not realising Ganesha was his son, Shiva cut off his head so replaced it with the head of the nearest sleeping animal which was an elephant. He also granted Ganesha great wisdom and a power to remove any obstacles that come in the way of all people who truly worship him. Lakshmi: Lakshmi is the goddess of wealth and good fortune. She is also the wife of Vishnu.	Most Muslims believe they should live a good life. Muslims believe life was given to them by Allah and they should try to live as good a life as possible. Muslims believe that when they die their actions in this life will help decide what happens next. Muslims believe Allah is watching them all the time. All their good deeds and thoughts and words will be kept as a record. When they die, Allah will decide whether they've been good enough to go to heaven or not. The enquiry looks at two of the five pillars. giving to the poor fasting during the month of Ramadan. other ways of living a good life include... reading and following the words of the Qur'an. going to the Mosque regularly. being honest and trying to help others.	his enquiry looks at some of the ways many Muslims show Allah that He is the most important thing to them, including the 5 pillars which are central to Muslim life. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Shahadah -this is a statement which is repeated many times a day 'There is one God Allah and Muhammad is his prophet', this is said first thing in the morning, last thing at night and during each prayer. 2. Salat - prayer, 5 times a day, these prayers show that life revolves around God, 3. Zakat - Giving 2.5% yearly savings to charity, this is usually organised through the local mosque. Zakat is seen as a duty. 4. Sawm - Fasting –During the month of Ramadan many Muslims will fast during the hours of daylight, this helps to develop self-discipline. It is challenging but this is deliberate as Muslims need to understand what it is like to be poor and hungry. 5. Hajj – Pilgrimage to Makkah in Saudi Arabia once in a lifetime – this is to follow in the footsteps of the prophet Muhammad and remember some key events in the history of Islam. 	The Qur'an is the holy book for Muslims, but it is also believed to be the actual words of Allah spoken in Arabic, the language chosen by Allah. It is treated with great respect and many Muslims will learn Arabic specially to understand the Qur'an in the language it was written in. Many Muslims take lessons in how to speak Arabic, including schoolchildren. These classes are often carried out in the Mosque, the Muslim place of worship. The Qur'an is respected in many ways including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> o Being put on a stand when used, so it is not over touched. o When not used it is wrapped in a clean cloth o When not being read it should be the highest book in the room o Never being placed on the floor o Hands being washed before it is touched. o You must be in the right frame of mind – concentrate on Allah Muslims believe the Qur'an gives information on how to live life the way Allah would want. This is important to Muslims as Allah is watching them, life on earth is a test and challenges occur. The way you handle these will be observed by Allah.

Onkar means supreme reality or being. Translated into English it is equivalent to: There is only one God. It is the first line of the Mool Mantar Prayer (An important Sikh prayer). The Ik Onkar symbol can be found in many Gurdwaras and Sikh homes. It helps Sikhs to focus when they are meditating and praying.

Prayer is saying thanks to God. Muslims want to thank God for life and everything he has done, is doing and will do in their lives. Before praying Muslims wash unclothed parts of their body and prepare their minds to be with Allah – everyday worries should be put to one side during prayer as Allah deserves total respect. Prayer can take place anywhere as long as you are in a clean place.	Jesus taught about worship in the Bible and praying . Baptism is generally a rite for babies although adults can choose to be baptised later in life. It confers the name of the person and their part in God's family. Many Christians would choose to get married in Church to confer God's blessing on the marriage. Churches frequently have art or symbols which may remind the Christian of his or her beliefs or the life of Jesus or other figures from the Bible or later saints. These can help the Christian focus when in Church which they may find more difficult e.g. at home where there are more distractions. Consider the feelings a place evokes as well as the building and what happens there. These feelings may be one of the reasons a Christian would choose to go to Church.	10 Commandments (see below) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Jesus' commandments to love God and love your neighbour. Jesus did not change or discard the original 10 Commandments. His teaching made it easier to understand that in essence the first 3 Commandments are about loving God and the other 7 are about loving your neighbour Many Christians will choose to be confirmed (received into the Church as an adult) and in this ceremony, the gifts of the Holy Spirit are prayed to be conferred on them. 	Sikhs are proud to visibly show commitment to their faith – this can be done in many ways including <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Joining the Khalsa through the Amrit Ceremony Wearing the 5 K's Worshipping in the Gurdwara Reading and respecting the Guru Granth Sahib Serving the community through the Langar meal and other areas of Sewa (service)
